

NEW

'Thanks to PFEF I got my driver's license'
KHENSANI MKANSI

It will be easy for me to arrive on time for classes now. Thank you so much!
KHENSANI MKANSI,
BACHELOR OF EDUCATION,
UNIVERSITY OF
JOHANNESBURG

PFEF's pilot Drivers Licence Assistance Programme, offer 10 sponsored lessons:

- A driver's license is important when job hunting
- It will give our students an advantage
- PFEF Students with a valid Learners' License can apply

NEW

Thanks to PFEF we chose our matric subjects wisely.

Our new Subject Choice Workshop helps Grade 9s make an informed choice about future studies. Expert facilitators helped learners make this important decision.

Thanks to PFEF, school maths classrooms are getting makeover

Our first school was Floreat Primary in Steenberg. Three maths classrooms now have fresh paint, varnished floors and colourful, fun mathematics tools and posters across the walls.

NEW

CUTTING THE RIBBON
Lezelle Scholtz,
Manager PFEF

Helping St Anthony's RC Primary with much-needed electronic resources for their library

Mrs Reyneke expressed her joy and thanks for the projector and desktop computer, which will make the learner's time more interactive.

Top tips from our graduates...

Shetarah Southgate, Diploma Art & Design, College of Cape Town

- Finish assignments early - the workload will grow.
- Your grades do not define you.
- Get a study buddy.

Palesa Mosia, Advance Diploma in Logistics, University of Johannesburg

- Create a study schedule and know when assignments are due.
- Look after your physical, mental, and emotional well-being – get involved in social clubs or sports.
- Stay away from bad friends!

Kayla Ah Shene, Bachelor of Social Science Psychology, UCT

- Keep asking about other courses and directions to see what works for you.
- Make time to hang out with friends and make memories.
- PFEF's Launchpad coaching showed there are things I cannot control, and how to de-stress.

Luyanda Khumalo, Diploma in Civil Engineering, Durban University of Technology

- Stay calm and do not give up.
- It takes time to adjust
- Carmen, Launchpad, helped a lot with my CV, driver's license and advice.

Shaakerah Arends, Bachelor Education, Foundation Phase, UCT

- Focus on good academic habits, social skills and balancing priorities - skills that will be important later.
- Speak to Carmen when struggling academically. She'll help.

Ncamisile Zulu, Bachelor Pharmacy, Sefako Makgatho Health Sciences University

- Make sure you don't do a course that holds no interest for you.
- Attendance is vital.

You've got this! That you are pursuing higher education means you want to shape your future!

PALESA MOSIA